Literary Rights

Literary rights were not granted to Wichita State University. When permission is granted to examine manuscripts, it is not an authorization to publish them. Manuscripts cannot be used for publication without regard for common law literary rights, copyright laws and the laws of libel. It is the responsibility of the researcher and his/her publisher to obtain permission to publish. Scholars and students who eventually plan to have their work published are urged to make inquiry regarding overall restrictions on publication before initial research.

Content Note

The Harold F. Thomas Papers contain eight diaries that describe the travels of Harold F. Thomas and members of his family from 1952 through 1972. The two decades of diaries illustrate travel through the world, including Europe, Mexico, the Pacific Ocean, Africa and Asia. The diaries allow a view to the countries visited, local customs, and descriptions of landmarks.
