

Dr. Edward N. Tihen (1924-1991) was an avid reader and researcher of Wichita newspapers. His notes from Wichita newspapers -- the "Tihen Notes," as we call them -- provide an excellent starting point for further research. They present brief synopses of newspaper articles, identify the newspaper -- Eagle, Beacon or Eagle-Beacon -- in which the stories first appeared, and give exact references to the pages on which the articles are found. Microfilmed copies of these newspapers are available at the Wichita State University Libraries, the Wichita Public Library, or by interlibrary loan from the Kansas State Historical Society.

Subject(s): Conine

Wichita Beacon

Friday, June 17, 1921

page

3. A group of young business and professional men have purchased the 160 acres known as the Conine farm from S. L. Conine as the site for a new country club and golf links, to be known as the Fairmount Country Club. The tract is on the north side of 17th Street. Construction will be started at once on the club house and golf links. Details. Only nine holes will be built this summer, but in the fall nine more holes will be added.

Wichita Eagle

Saturday, June 18, 1921

page

6. Article says the newly organized country club has secured a 15 year lease on the 160 acre farm belonging to S. L. Conine on East 17th street for the location of its golf links and club house and is to be called the "Fairmount Country Club." Details.

Wichita Eagle

Saturday, June 25, 1921

page

5. Members of the new country club chose the name "The Crestview Country Club" at a meeting yesterday. Lease will be closed today on the S. L. Conine farm -- for three years, with ten year renewal clause and option to purchase within 13 years at appraisal price. Details.