

SELECTIONS FROM DR. EDWARD N. TIHEN'S NOTES FROM WICHITA NEWSPAPERS
WICHITA STATE UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES - DEPARTMENT OF SPECIAL COLLECTIONS

Please note: The "Tihen Notes," as we call them, provide an excellent starting point for further research. They present brief synopses of newspaper articles, identify the newspaper -- Eagle or Beacon -- in which the stories first appeared, and give exact references to the pages on which the articles are found. Microfilmed copies of these newspapers are available at the Wichita State University Libraries, the Wichita Public Library, or by interlibrary loan from the Kansas State Historical Society.

Subject(s): Edgington Apartments also known as Rule Building, 321 East William

Wichita Beacon

Sunday, November 4, 1923

page

- B-6. Photograph of new Edgington Apartments on William just west of Topeka, which will be opened to the public Monday. Building is 60 by 90 and six stories. Built by L. M. Crawford for $200,000. Article with details.

Wichita Eagle

Sunday, November 4, 1923

page

3. The new apartment building at 321 East William owned by L. M. Crawford, is now called the Edgington apartments.

Wichita Eagle

Monday, November 5, 1923

page

3. Article describes the new Edgington Apartments, just completed, at 321 East William. Photograph. Architects were Squires and Ross, of Topeka, and owner is L. M. Crawford.

Wichita Beacon

Thursday, July 24, 1941

page

2. Well known Wichita and Midwestern theater owner, L. M. Crawford, is celebrating his 96th birthday today. Owns the Crawford Theater in Wichita, and the Edgington Apartments, 321 East William, where he resides. Photo.

Wichita Eagle

Sunday, January 24, 1954

page

Magazine

6B. The six story building at 321 East William, previously the Edgington Apartments, has been gutted and completely reconstructed into an office building, and reopens this week as the Rule Building, a modern office building. An additional floor was also added to a large part of the building making a total of seven floors plus basement. The project was begun last April. Details. Photo.