Biography

Gladys Cox was born in Fairview, Kansas on January 10, 1912. She moved to Wichita, Kansas, in 1930 to attend the Wichita Business College. After graduation she became the Education Director of the First Baptist Church in Wichita. Cox later worked in the Sedgwick County Election Office, the district court, and the sheriff's office before she was appointed Sedgwick County Election Commissioner in 1961. She resigned from that position six years later. Cox spent the remainder of her life involved in various social and Republican party political organizations.

Gladys Cox died on April 19, 1999, at the age of 87.

Detailed Description: Series Listing

Series 1	Box 1 FF 1-7	Political Organizations. This series contains newspaper clippings, correspondence, artifacts, and miscellaneous material from her years as a member of the Kansas Republican State Committee, Sedgwick County Republican Central Committee, Sedgwick County Republican Women's Club, and as Election Commissioner of Sedgwick County. Of particular interest in the series are letters from Richard Nixon and Nancy Reagan thanking Cox for her support. 1936-1984.
Series 2	Box 1 FF 8-Box 3	Social and Professional Organizations. This series consists of constitutions, by-laws, correspondence, and scrapbooks which contain newspapers clippings, newsletters, photographs, and miscellaneous material. The series primarily documents Cox's tenure as president of the Business and Professional Women's Club in 1962-1963 and the Prairie Pilot Club of Wichita in 1964-1965. The series also includes scrapbooks, which include materials related to these clubs. 1962-1978.
Series 3	Box 4	Photographs. Most of the photographs in this series are undated. This series contains photographs of groups of women attending Business and Professional Women's Club banquets and Washington D.C. for National Federation of Republican Women (NFRW) conferences. The series also contains photos of Cox at work in the Election Commissioners Office. Of note in the series are photographs of the NFRW women taken with Congressmen Bob Dole, Garner Shriver, Joe Skubitz, as well as Pat Nixon. 1954-1971.
Series 4	Box 5	Artifacts. This series includes an original car bumper sign used during Alf Landon's Presidential Campaign in 1936, wooden painted Republican logo, and a sunflower badge with lapel pins.
