Literary Rights

Literary rights were not granted to Wichita State University. When permission is granted to examine manuscripts, it is not an authorization to publish them. Manuscripts cannot be used for publication without regard for common law literary rights, copyright laws and the laws of libel. It is the responsibility of the researcher and his/her publisher to obtain permission to publish. Scholars and students who eventually plan to have their work published are urged to make inquiry regarding overall restrictions on publication before initial research.

Content Note

The Henry Game Papers consists of his letters home to his wife in England from August 30, 1915 to September 28, 1915. The letters contain references to Zeppelins over London, weather conditions and life in the trenches. The collection also contains a photograph with the notation "Captain Henry Game" on the back.

Biography

Henry Game fought in the trenches of France during World War I. Game was a lieutenant in the 82nd Brigade and later received an assignment as Official Intelligence Officer to the Brigade.
