Literary Rights

Literary rights were not granted to Wichita State University. When permission is granted to examine manuscripts, it is not an authorization to publish them. Manuscripts cannot be used for publication without regard for common law literary rights, copyright laws and the laws of libel. It is the responsibility of the researcher and his/her publisher to obtain permission to publish. Scholars and students who eventually plan to have their work published are urged to make inquiry regarding overall restrictions on publication before initial research.

Content Note

This collection contains business and personal records of the Salmon Brothers, photographers, of Mt. Hope, Kansas. The business-related correspondence and records are comprised of invoices, stock investment opportunities offered to the brothers, proof orders, tax receipts and other documents. The personal correspondence includes family news from N. D. and H. L. Salmon. Several images taken by the firm are also included. Materials date from 1890 to 1926.
