Content Note

The collection includes materials that document aspects of Wichita, Kansas, radio station KFDI from 1962 to 1997. Advertising rate cards and working files of the Sales Department show advertising costs and marketing packages available between 1962 and 1994, and event programs, schedules, ticket stubs, contest and promotions pieces, and station-produced publications chronicle the activities of the station from 1971 to1997. The collection also includes a file of ephemeral pieces concerning other radio stations owned by Great Empire Broadcasting, Inc. and a file of Mike Oatman clippings. The materials were collected by station employee Chris Spreier.

Administrative History

In 1962 Frank Lynch and his son Mike purchased radio station KIRL from silent movie stars Mary Pickford and Buddy Rogers. They changed the name to KFDI and the flagship station of Great Empire Broadcasting Inc. was born. In 1964 Mike Oatman arrived and became program director and on air personality for the station. Soon after, Mike Lynch partnered with Oatman and the two became co-owners of Great Empire Broadcasting Inc., the parent company of KFDI AM and FM radio. Despite the sale of Great Empire Broadcasting in 1999 to the Journal Broadcast Group, KFDI, devoted to news, weather, and country-western music, remains to this day, a fixture within Wichita and the greater listening area.
