Literary Rights

Literary rights were not granted to Wichita State University. When permission is granted to examine manuscripts, it is not an authorization to publish them. Manuscripts cannot be used for publication without regard for common law literary rights, copyright laws and the laws of libel. It is the responsibility of the researcher and his/her publisher to obtain permission to publish. Scholars and students who eventually plan to have their work published are urged to make inquiry regarding overall restrictions on publication before initial research.

Restrictions

Access Restrictions (Collection stored in off-site facility. Contact Special Collections regarding retrieval.)

1. Special Collections and University Archives, Wichita State University Libraries, will not grant access to Albert Goldbarth's unpublished writings and other unpublished materials (including NEA reviews, tenure and promotion reviews, and committee work) during the lifetime of Albert Goldbarth without his advance written permission or, in the event of his incapacity, without the advance written permission of his literary executor(s). On the death of Albert Goldbarth, access to these writings and other unpublished materials will be open to qualified researchers, as determined by the Curator of Special Collections, Wichita State University Libraries.
2. Special Collections and University Archives, Wichita State University Libraries, will not grant access to Albert Goldbarth's lesson plans and other teaching materials in the Albert Goldbarth Papers while he is employed by Wichita State University without his written permission.

3. Special Collections and University Archives, Wichita State University Libraries, will not grant access to the litigation records in the Albert Goldbarth Papers while he is employed by Wichita State University without his written permission.
4. Special Collections and University Archives, Wichita State University Libraries, will not grant access to incoming correspondence without the advance written permission of Albert Goldbarth until January 1, 2020, or until the time of Albert Goldbarth's death, whichever occurs first. The one exception to this restriction is incoming publisher correspondence (i.e., Published Work Files) to which access will be given without written permission.

Use Restrictions

1. Albert Goldbarth and/or his literary executor(s) retain copyright but convey to Special Collections and University Archives, Wichita State University Libraries, permission to reproduce materials in all media in accordance with the fair use exceptions granted under U.S. copyright law. Special Collections and University Archives reserves the right to limit quantities and formats and to otherwise set requirements in order to maintain the integrity of the collection.
 2. For reproduction of materials for purposes that are reasonably considered to go beyond the limits of the fair use exceptions, Special Collections and University Archives, Wichita State University Libraries, will consult with Albert Goldbarth or his literary executor during the course of his lifetime, to determine the appropriateness of individual requests.

Content Note

The Albert Goldbarth Papers document Goldbarth's career as a poet, essayist, and university professor. The collection includes submission manuscripts, proof pages, galleys, cover art samples, and other materials used towards published poems and book manuscripts. The tear sheets, announcements, clippings, and other publicity materials included in the collection document Goldbarth's career as a working writer. The collection is also comprised of unpublished work files, including manuscripts for unpublished books, typewritten copies of poems, notebooks, and research packets. The papers also include ephemeral material and a collection of correspondence and Writings by Others.

Biography

Albert Goldbarth was born January 31, 1948, in Chicago, Illinois. He received his B.A. from the University of Illinois at Chicago in 1969 and his M.F.A. from the University of Iowa in 1971. He has authored over 30 books of poetry and essays. His poetry collections, Heaven and Earth: A Cosmology (1991) and Saving Lives (2001), both won the National Book Critics Circle Award for poetry. Goldbarth is the only poet to have won the award twice. His collection of essays, Many Circles, won the 2001 PEN West Creative Nonfiction Award. His collection, Kitchen Sink: New and Selected Poems 1972-2007, was named a 2008 Kansas Notable Book. In 2008 Goldbarth also won the Mark Twain Poetry Award from the Poetry Foundation, the Chicago-based organization that publishes Poetry magazine. He is currently the Adele Davis Distinguished Professor of Humanities at Wichita State University, where he has taught since 1987.
