Collection Summary

Title: Walter Morris Family Papers

Call Number: 2014-01

Inclusive dates: 1873-2006

Size: 42.5 linear ft (37 boxes) and 6 oversized folders (OS)

Abstract: Personal and professional papers of various members of the Morris family, including records from the family real estate business, referred to in the collection as Walter Morris & Son, but now named Walter Morris Companies. The real estate firm, established in 1887 by Walter Morris after arriving in Wichita, Kansas, from Sabrina, Ohio, is the oldest existing real estate firm in Wichita that is still family owned and operated. The bulk of this collection belonged to Walter Morris and his daughter, Harriett Morris, a Methodist missionary to Korea in the first half of the twentieth century. The collection is comprised of personal files, diaries, personal and business correspondence, writings, family albums and snapshots, Walter Morris & Son property records and images, souvenirs from trips, yearbooks, material on Ewha Womans University, Campbell Castle images and descriptions, press clippings, and artifacts. The records provide information on the Morris family, late nineteenth and twentieth century Wichita, and Walter Morris & Son.

Language: English, Japanese, Korean

Acquisition: Donated by Medrith N. Appling, James R. Boyd, Michael J. Boyd, Thomas W. Boyd, Martha Boyd Gregg, James H. Kauffman, Elizabeth Kay, and Carolyn McMurtry in 2011

Processed by: LBW, TB, and MS 11-2013

Content Note

The collection consists of records created and used by members of the Morris family and the family real estate business, Walter Morris & Son, now named Walter Morris Companies. The majority of the material belonged to Walter Morris, Harriett Morris, and Walter Morris & Son. The bulk of the records are from the 1950s-1990s with some material documenting the family's life and business in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries in Wichita.

The records include personal files created by or about members of the Morris family including awards and honors, legal records, Methodism, missionaries, and memorials and tributes; diaries; personal correspondence; writings including Harriett Morris' two cookbooks, The Art of Korean Cooking (also titled, Korean Recipes) and Western Food Adapted to Korea; images such as family photo albums, loose photographs and negatives; Walter Morris & Son promotional literature, business correspondence, warranty deeds, plot plans, commercial and residential real estate photographs and negatives; images and souvenirs from many of the trips Morris family members took; yearbooks; Ewha Womans University promotional material, anniversary observances, newsletters, and material about former Ewha president and personal friend of Harriett Morris, Dr. Helen Kim; Campbell Castle images, notes, descriptions, and sale contracts; press clippings; and artifacts.

Of particular note are the commercial and residential real estate photographs taken and used by Walter Morris & Son, as they depict buildings and street blocks in Wichita over the course of time; Walter Morris' outgoing correspondence to Adda (King) Morris from 1884-1888 with his descriptions of the American west and Wichita during its early years, and Harriett Morris' book, The Art of Korean Cooking, in which she provided Korean recipes for Midwesterners.

Biography

Morris Family

The Morris family has been involved in commercial and residential real estate since Walter Morris (1860-1951) moved to Wichita, Kansas, from Sabina, Ohio, in 1887. The real estate firm established by Walter Morris is still owned and operated by his descendants.

After moving to Wichita, Walter quickly set about establishing himself. 1888 was a busy year for Walter: he enrolled in courses at the newly opened Garfield University, maintained his newly opened real estate business, and married Adda King (1862-1900) of Washington Court House, Ohio. Walter and Adda had four children: Clara (1889-1978), William (1892-1963), Harriett (1894-1997), and Luella (1898-1998). Adda died in 1900. In 1913, Walter married W. A. Kreutel, also known as Anna Morris, but they divorced in 1916. Walter spent the rest of his life in Wichita buying and developing commercial and residential properties. These properties include many well known Wichita neighborhoods, commercial buildings, and shopping centers including, but not limited to, Sleepy Hollow, Lincoln Heights, Crown Heights, Roosevelt Field, and Lincoln Heights Village, Wichita's first modern shopping center. In 1910, Walter purchased the Campbell Castle and lived there with his family until his death in 1951. The family sold the castle to Maye Crumm in 1960. When Walter was not working, he enjoyed gardening and traveling, to which he devoted entries in his diaries.

Clara (Morris) Lint married H. Clay Lint (1888-1968) and had two daughters, Betty and Dorothy (Dot). During her married life, Clara lived in both Connecticut and Wichita. Clara was not involved in the family real estate business.

William (Will) Morris worked alongside his father at Walter Morris & Son developing, maintaining, and selling commercial and residential real estate in Wichita. William married May Arnett (1893-1990), and they had three daughters, Eloise (Morris) McMurtry, Carolyn Morris Beckett, and Mary Margaret Morris Boyd. Carolyn and Mary remained in the family business.

Harriett Morris graduated from Kansas State Agricultural College in 1918 with a degree in Home Economics. From 1918-1920, she worked as a substitute teacher in Wichita. In 1921, Harriett left home to become a Methodist missionary in Korea. She worked as a missionary from 1921-1940 and again from 1956-1959. In 1926, she left Korea to attend graduate school at Columbia University's Teachers College in New York City. Harriett graduated in 1928 and returned to Korea. As a missionary, she spent the majority of her time teaching home economics at Ewha Womans University in Seoul, where she developed Ewha's home economics program. After completing her missionary work, Harriett moved back to Wichita, spoke of her experiences, and remained active in her church. Harriett never married, but was engaged to Arthur Noble, who died during a hunting accident on December 26, 1914, when the bobsled he was traveling in, hit a bump and caused a gun to accidentally shoot him in the back. Harriett, her sister, Luella, and Arthur's brother, Max, were riding in the bobsled with Arthur at the time of the accident.

Luella (Morris) Noble married Max Noble (1894-1996) and had two children, Medrith (Noble) Appling and Drew Noble. Luella and Max remained in Wichita. Luella was not involved in the family business.

Walter Morris & Son

Walter Morris established himself in real estate immediately upon his 1887 Wichita arrival. He set up shop in an office on East Douglas Ave. and immediately set to work speculating town lots. Very early on, Walter had business partners, but by the end of 1887, he operated Walter Morris and Company Real Estate Agents under just his name. During this period, Wichita's population experienced tremendous growth, and, with this growth, came the urgent need to build a larger city. Walter, as a property developer, was instrumental in shaping many of Wichita's residential areas. When Walter's son, William, finished school, he joined his father in the real estate business, and the business' name changed to Walter Morris & Son.

Walter's real estate company developed residential and commercial properties around Wichita. His residential developments, many of which have wide, tree lined streets, include Crown Heights, Sleepy Hollow, Lincoln Heights, Park Hollow, South Broadway Gardens, South Hydraulic Park, South Seneca Gardens, and Sunnyside Gardens. Some of the commercial properties include Lincoln Heights Village, Morris Town, Hunter's Square, Riverside Village, and various office buildings. Many of the commercial properties Walter Morris' real estate firm developed are still owned and operated by the family company, now known as Walter Morris Companies.

MS 2014-01 Walter Morris Family Papers Finding Aid

As a means to give back to Wichita and the real estate profession, Walter and his real estate firm started the Walter Morris Trophy in 1926 to honor an outstanding Wichita broker each year. The trophy is still awarded annually.

Walter Morris' descendants have remained active in the family business. Two of William's daughters, Carolyn and Mary, worked in the family business as residential realtors. Other family members who work or have worked in the family business include Mary's husband, Jim Boyd; Mary and Jim's sons, Mike and Tom Boyd; Mike Boyd's wife, Linda; and Mike and Linda Boyd's children, Andy, David, and Katie Boyd. Today, Walter Morris Companies is a full service development, brokerage, and investment firm.

- Description: Departed Wichita and traveled to Chicago, Detroit, Niagara Falls, Toronto, Montreal, and Quebec City; sailed abroad and traveled to England, Ireland, Scotland, the Netherlands, Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, and France.

California Trip:

- Dates: August 6-30, 1927
- Travelers: Walter Morris, Max Noble, and unidentified
- Description: The group left from the Morris home in Green Mountain Falls, Colorado, and traveled via car through Colorado, Wyoming, Idaho, Oregon, Washington, Oregon, California, Arizona, New Mexico, and Kansas.

World Tour:

- Dates: February 2, 1928-September 18, 1928
- Travelers: Walter Morris and Harriett Morris
- Description: Walter met Harriett in New York City at the end of her graduate program at Columbia University. They sailed out of New York City and traveled to England, France, Switzerland, Italy, Greece, Turkey, Syria, Palestine, Egypt, India, Malaysia, Singapore, Hong Kong, Japan, and Korea.

Southern Trip:

- Dates: February 13-25, 1941
- Travelers: Walter Morris, Harriett Morris, and Marion Conrow
- Description: Walter, Harriett, and Marion left Wichita and drove south through Oklahoma to Texas, traveling all the way to Galveston, Texas. They then drove back through Texas and Oklahoma to get back to Wichita.

There are many unidentified trips, as Walter traveled out west, often with the intent of scouting land to purchase; the dates and details of these trips are unknown. Souvenirs comprise the bulk of this subseries, consisting of tourist literature, postcards, images of locations visited, and maps. Of note is the Southern Trip scrapbook that documents Walter and Harriett's trip to Texas.

Series 8: Schools, 1912-1998

Boxes: 14-15, 33

This series contains material about Ewha Womans University, in Seoul, South Korea, where Harriett Morris worked as a Methodist missionary. It also houses material from Wichita High School and Kansas State Agricultural College (now Kansas State University). Both of the latter schools were attended by Morris family members.

Arrangement Note

This series is arranged into 3 subseries: (8.1) Ewha Womans University, (8.2) Kansas State Agricultural College, and (8.3) Wichita High School; arranged in alphabetical order.

Subseries: 8.1 Ewha Womans University, 1931-1998

Boxes: 14, 33

The Ewha Womans University subseries is comprised of material by and about Ewha, a women's university located in Seoul, South Korea. There is material on Ewha's 75th and 100th anniversary observances, university brochures, copies of Ewha News and Ewha Voice, and information about the Home Economics Department that Harriett Morris was instrumental in establishing. This subseries also includes material that Harriett Morris collected about Dr. Helen Kim, the first Korean to become president of Ewha and a personal friend. Of note is the material on Young Sook Kim, a student from Ewha Womans University that Harriett Morris sponsored while she completed school at Iowa State University.

RESEARCHER NOTES:

- See Subseries 1.6: Morris, Harriett for more material on Ewha Womans University:
 - Awards and honors, Ewha University's Citation for Merits
 - Awards and honors, Morris Hall named in Harriett Morris' honor at Ewha

Subseries: 8.2 Kansas State Agricultural College, 1918-1919

Boxes: 14-15

MS 2014-01
Walter Morris Family Papers Finding Aid

This subseries contains the yearbook of Kansas State Agricultural College (now Kansas State University), The Royal Purple, from 1918-1919.

Subseries: 8.3 Wichita High School, 1912-1923

Box: 15

This subseries houses Wichita High School yearbooks from 1912-1913 and 1923. It also includes the 1913 and 1916 commencement programs and other material from Wichita High School.

Series 9: Campbell Castle, 1910-1994

Box: 15, 33

This series includes material about Campbell Castle, located at 1155 N. River Blvd., Wichita, Kansas. The castle is a 28 room home constructed by Colonel Burton "Barbeque" Harvey Campbell, a wealthy cattleman in 1888. Architectural drawings of a castle in the foothills of Scotland were used to create the Campbell castle. The Campbells owned the castle until 1910, when it was purchased by Walter Morris. The Morris family sold the castle to Maye Crumm in 1960. Crumm renamed it Crumm Castle, and she operated the Belle Carter High School in the castle. The Campbell Castle was placed on the National Historic Register in 1973. In 1994, the castle was purchased by Terry and Paula Lowry, who ran it as a bed and breakfast named Castle Inn Riverside; it closed in 2012. Much of this series documents the Friends of Campbell Castle's efforts to purchase the castle in the early 1990s and turn it into a public facility.

RESEARCHER NOTES:

- See Subseries 5.1: Album 3, Snapshots: Campbell-Morris Home
- See Subseries 5.2: Negatives, Campbell Castle
- See Subseries 5.3: Photographs, Campbell Castle

Arrangement Note

This series is arranged into 7 subseries: (9.1) Calendars, (9.2) Cards and Brochures, (9.3) Descriptions, (9.4) Friends of Campbell Castle, (9.5) Historic Preservation Alliance, (9.6) Notes, and (9.7) Sale; arranged in alphabetical order.

Subseries: 9.1 Calendars, 1975-1977

Box: 15

The Calendars subseries houses the 1975 and 1977 Campbell Castle calendars. These calendars were created by Maye Crumm, who purchased the castle from the Morris family in 1960 and began calling it Crumm Castle. The calendars include descriptions of the castle; images of the castle, grounds, and former owners; and poetry written by Crumm. Walter Morris is profiled on the back of the 1975 calendar and in March of 1977.

Subseries: 9.2 Cards and Brochures, 1983

Box: 15

This subseries contains various cards and brochures with images of Campbell Castle.

Subseries: 9.3 Descriptions, c. 1960-1993

MS 2014-01
Walter Morris Family Papers Finding Aid

Box: 15

The Descriptions subseries is comprised of written descriptions of Campbell Castle. It includes "Answers to Frequently Asked Questions," a list of 12 facts about the castle; "Burton and Ellen Campbell," a history of the castle written by Wilma Sehnert; the text to the listing the Morris family used when selling the castle titled, "Like a Fairy Tale Brought to Reality," and other untitled descriptions of the castle.

Subseries: 9.4 Friends of Campbell Castle, 1993-1994

Boxes: 15, 33

The Friends of the Campbell Castle (FOCC) grew out of the Historic Preservation Alliance in 1993 when Maye Crumm put the castle up for sale. The FOCC's was a not-for-profit corporation with the goal of raising enough funds to purchase, renovate, repair, maintain, and operate the castle as a museum and public facility. The FOCC was not able to raise enough funds to buy the castle, and in 1994, it was purchased by Terry and Paula Lowry. This subseries documents the FOCC's organization and fundraising efforts as they attempted to raise enough funds to purchase the castle. It includes a meeting agenda, list of the members on the FOCC Board of Directors, brochures, material sold for fundraising purposes, and correspondence.

RESEARCHER NOTES: See Series 10: Press Clippings, 1993-1994 for more information about the FOCC.

Subseries: 9.5 Historic Preservation Alliance, 1993

Box: 15

The Historic Preservation Alliance (HPA) was responsible for creating the Friends of Campbell Castle (FOCC), in 1993, as a way to purchase the Campbell Castle and turn it into a public facility. This subseries includes the HPA's brochures, the Heritage Guardian newsletter with an article about the FOCC detailing the Campbell Castle Project Plan, and a draft of the HPA's Campbell Castle Project Plan.

Subseries: 9.6 Notes, n.d.

Box: 15

This series includes unidentified notes about Campbell Castle.

Subseries: 9.7 Sale, 1910-1960

Box: 15

This subseries contains material on the sale of the Campbell Castle. It includes the 1910 and 1960 sale contracts and a proposal for the sale of the castle to the Wichita Historical Museum.

Series 10: Press Clippings, c. 1879-2006

Boxes: 15, 33, OS 5-6

This series is comprised of press clippings collected by various members of the Morris family. The bulk of the press clippings belonged to Harriett Morris. The clippings cover a wide range of topics including Korea, Methodism, missionaries, real estate, Harriett Morris, Walter Morris, other Morris family members, Walter Morris & Son, Campbell Castle, and Wichita.
