Biography

Clif Major, born on November 18, 1948 in Wichita, Kansas, attended school in Wichita and graduated from Wichita High School West in 1966. Major, a fixture in the local blues, bluegrass, rock and gospel scene, started performing with his high school band, The Outcasts, in the 1960s. Other bands Major performed with were The Del Reys, Southwind, The Jukes, and The Prairie Grass.

In 1978, Major opened C Major Guitars on the corner of Douglas and Hillside, where he sold vintage guitars and other instruments and equipment, as well as giving guitar lessons. In 2003, Major married fellow performer and Wichitan, Kathy Roush. In 2004, Major and Roush closed C Major Guitars, and, in the same location, opened C Major's Rockin' Daddy's, a live music venue. At the same time, they opened Kathy's Guitar Shop in Boulevard Plaza in Wichita. Kathy's Guitar Shop closed a short time later. C Major's Rockin' Daddy's remained open until 2012.

Major and Roush divorced, but remained close and performed together until 2013. In 2014, Major was inducted into the Kansas Music Hall of Fame. Major died on June 13, 2014 in Wichita, Kansas.
