Literary Rights

Literary rights were not granted to Wichita State University. When permission is granted to examine the manuscripts, it is not an authorization to publish them. Manuscripts cannot be used for publication without regard for common law literary rights, copyright laws and the laws of libel. It is the responsibility of the researcher and his/her publisher to obtain permission to publish. Scholars and students who eventually plan to have their work published are urged to make inquiry regarding overall restrictions on publication before initial research.

Content Note

The Frederick J. Waugh Collection is composed of four volumes of photographic reproductions of his paintings, complete with notations of their present owners and locations, if known. The paintings are primarily of the sea in various moods ranging from tranquil to raging. The paintings listed as "untitled" are seascapes and/or ships. Also included in the collection are two self-portraits of Waugh.
