Literary Rights

Literary rights were not granted to Wichita State University. When permission is granted to examine manuscripts, it is not an authorization to publish them. Manuscripts cannot be used for publication without regard for common law literary rights, copyright laws and the laws of libel. It is the responsibility of the researcher and his/her publisher to obtain permission to publish. Scholars and students who eventually plan to have their work published are urged to make inquiry regarding overall restrictions on publication before initial research.

Content Note

The documents in this collection are, with one exception, signed by members or associates of the Bonaparte family. The exception is a report, dated June 25, 1791, from the officers and men of the 83rd Infantry Regiment stationed at Charlemont. The report denounces their Colonel as a royalist and counter-revolutionary. Each of these documents is provided with a translation and biographical sketch of the signatories connected with the Bonaparte family.
