Content Note

These papers on the Kansas Governor's Commission on the Status of Women come from the files of Harriet Graham. Mrs. Graham was appointed chairman of the Commission's sub-committee on state government and private employment in 1965. In January 1968, Governor Robert Docking appointed her chairman of the Commission. Mrs. Graham served in that capacity until her resignation in March 1971. Most of the papers in the collection consist of correspondence, clippings, reports, and meeting minutes. They date from her tenure as chairman of the Commission.
