Content Note

Laiten Camien's papers contain correspondence and other documents that he used when writing his master's thesis at the University of Wichita in 1933. The correspondence dates from 1932 and 1933. The papers deal with Kansas history and especially about the topic of his thesis: schools in Sumner County, Kansas. There are also some notes on a robbery that occurred in Medicine Lodge in 1883. Also included are ephemeral pieces from Camien's senior year at Wichita High School, 1924.
