Literary Rights

Literary rights were not granted to Wichita State University. When permission is granted to examine manuscripts, it is not an authorization to publish them. Manuscripts cannot be used for publication without regard for common law literary rights, copyright laws and the laws of libel. It is the responsibility of the researcher and his/her publisher to obtain permission to publish. Scholars and students who eventually plan to have their work published are urged to make inquiry regarding overall restrictions on publication before initial research.

Content Note

The Clifford K. Berryman Collection of Political Cartoons primarily contains newspaper clippings of Berryman's work dating from 1941 to 1949. The clippings are pasted onto loose-leaf letter-sized paper. The collection also includes several articles written about Berryman and his accomplishments.

Biography

Clifford K. Berryman (1869-1949) was a nationally known cartoonist. He drew for Washington Star from 1907 to 1949. His cartoons won him the Pulitzer Prize, a permanent place in the Library of Congress Cabinet of American Illustration and a display as part of the pictorial history of the Supreme Court.
