Literary Rights

Literary rights were not granted to Wichita State University. When permission is granted to examine manuscripts, it is not an authorization to publish them. Manuscripts cannot be used for publication without regard for common law literary rights, copyright laws and the laws of libel. It is the responsibility of the researcher and his/her publisher to obtain permission to publish. Scholars and students who eventually plan to have their work published are urged to make inquiry regarding overall restrictions on publication before initial research.

Content Note

Charles de Ketschendorf's diary contains his written account of the Siege of Ladysmith, in South Africa during the Boer War. It dates from September 30, 1899 to July 17, 1900. He was a trooper in the Natal Mounted Police who served with the British forces in South Africa. The diary also contains photographs, newspaper clippings, and maps of the campaign against the Boers.
