Literary Rights

Literary rights were not granted to Wichita State University. When permission is granted to examine manuscripts, it is not an authorization to publish them. Manuscripts cannot be used for publication without regard for common law literary rights, copyright laws and the laws of libel. It is the responsibility of the researcher and his/her publisher to obtain permission to publish. Scholars and students who eventually plan to have their work published are urged to make inquiry regarding overall restrictions on publication before initial research.

Content Note

The Marcel Proust Collection contains five letters written by persons who served as models for characters in À la recherche du temps perdu: Robert de Montesquiou (Charlus), Sarah Bernhardt (La Berma), Réjane (La Berma), le Duc de Guiche (Saint Loup) and Dr. Dieulafoy (Dr. Cottard), with an additional letter by Jacques de Lacratelle. There is also one autographed letter in longhand addressed to "Chère Madame." A typewritten copy of this letter is included. It was published in Lettres à Madame C.
