Literary Rights

Literary rights were not granted to Wichita State University. When permission is granted to examine manuscripts, it is not an authorization to publish them. Manuscripts cannot be used for publication without regard for common law literary rights, copyright laws and the laws of libel. It is the responsibility of the researcher and his/her publisher to obtain permission to publish. Scholars and students who eventually plan to have their work published are urged to make inquiry regarding overall restrictions on publication before initial research.

Content Note

These papers of Lord Noel-Buxton contain nine letters regarding the conclusion of peace with Nazi Germany during World War II. The letters are written to Lord Noel-Buxton by other British officials and dignitaries in 1940 and 1944, and they provide insight on attitudes on peace as well as notes involving United States' involvement in the War including the Prussian Debate, Russia's annexes and Bulgaria.
