By Joseph Hillel—The German settlement begins in 1872, when Nicholas Mark and the witherspoon family were among the first to check the flow of the surf when Moses, George, Sephardic, Rambam, Klaussn, Schmidt, Ed. Landerlau, William, and Harriet, all of whom had been engaged in the salmon fishery. The settlement was organized in the same year.

By E. C. King—Cedarville was founded in 1857, when the first building was erected in the valley of the Nisqually. Silas S. C. O. Bate and O. H. C. Bate located in the area. The area was named for Walter S. More of the Whidbey Island district and his brother, Norval, with their mother, settled on the site. A church was built in 1875. A school was not established until 1879, when the first school was built.

By J. L. B. Price—Cathriona was settled in 1857. The site was initially inhabited by the Chinook Indians, who called it "the old camp". The first permanent settlers were the Cathairons, who arrived in 1857. The town was named for Cathairon, the first permanent settler.

By T. W. Johnson—Castle Rock was settled in 1857. The town was initially inhabited by the Chinook Indians, who called it "the old camp". The first permanent settlers were the Cathairons, who arrived in 1857. The town was named for Cathairon, the first permanent settler.

By C. E. Goodspeed—Established on May 2, 1837, the town was named for a native American, the Osage, a tribe that lived in the area. The town was settled as a result of the Osage's alliance with the British during the War of 1812.

By H. E. James—The town was settled in 1857. The site was initially inhabited by the Chinook Indians, who called it "the old camp". The first permanent settlers were the Cathairons, who arrived in 1857. The town was named for Cathairon, the first permanent settler.

The town was settled in 1857. The site was initially inhabited by the Chinook Indians, who called it "the old camp". The first permanent settlers were the Cathairons, who arrived in 1857. The town was named for Cathairon, the first permanent settler.

By W. H. Campbell—The town was settled in 1857. The site was initially inhabited by the Chinook Indians, who called it "the old camp". The first permanent settlers were the Cathairons, who arrived in 1857. The town was named for Cathairon, the first permanent settler.

By W. H. Campbell—The town was settled in 1857. The site was initially inhabited by the Chinook Indians, who called it "the old camp". The first permanent settlers were the Cathairons, who arrived in 1857. The town was named for Cathairon, the first permanent settler.

The town was settled in 1857. The site was initially inhabited by the Chinook Indians, who called it "the old camp". The first permanent settlers were the Cathairons, who arrived in 1857. The town was named for Cathairon, the first permanent settler.

The town was settled in 1857. The site was initially inhabited by the Chinook Indians, who called it "the old camp". The first permanent settlers were the Cathairons, who arrived in 1857. The town was named for Cathairon, the first permanent settler.

The town was settled in 1857. The site was initially inhabited by the Chinook Indians, who called it "the old camp". The first permanent settlers were the Cathairons, who arrived in 1857. The town was named for Cathairon, the first permanent settler.

The town was settled in 1857. The site was initially inhabited by the Chinook Indians, who called it "the old camp". The first permanent settlers were the Cathairons, who arrived in 1857. The town was named for Cathairon, the first permanent settler.

The town was settled in 1857. The site was initially inhabited by the Chinook Indians, who called it "the old camp". The first permanent settlers were the Cathairons, who arrived in 1857. The town was named for Cathairon, the first permanent settler.

The town was settled in 1857. The site was initially inhabited by the Chinook Indians, who called it "the old camp". The first permanent settlers were the Cathairons, who arrived in 1857. The town was named for Cathairon, the first permanent settler.

The town was settled in 1857. The site was initially inhabited by the Chinook Indians, who called it "the old camp". The first permanent settlers were the Cathairons, who arrived in 1857. The town was named for Cathairon, the first permanent settler.

The town was settled in 1857. The site was initially inhabited by the Chinook Indians, who called it "the old camp". The first permanent settlers were the Cathairons, who arrived in 1857. The town was named for Cathairon, the first permanent settler.

The town was settled in 1857. The site was initially inhabited by the Chinook Indians, who called it "the old camp". The first permanent settlers were the Cathairons, who arrived in 1857. The town was named for Cathairon, the first permanent settler.

The town was settled in 1857. The site was initially inhabited by the Chinook Indians, who called it "the old camp". The first permanent settlers were the Cathairons, who arrived in 1857. The town was named for Cathairon, the first permanent settler.

The town was settled in 1857. The site was initially inhabited by the Chinook Indians, who called it "the old camp". The first permanent settlers were the Cathairons, who arrived in 1857. The town was named for Cathairon, the first permanent settler.