Subject(s): John Noble

Wichita Beacon
Saturday, January 6, 1934
page 1. Report of death today of famous Wichita artist, John Noble, at Bellevue Hospital in New York City at age 59. Cause of death was listed as poisoning from a drug used in the treatment of alcoholism, from which he was suffering when he was taken to the hospital the night of December 29 from his home at 220 East 15th Street in New York. (Article January 7 says 210 East 15th.) Brief obituary. Photograph.

Wichita Beacon
Sunday, January 7, 1934

Wichita Eagle
Sunday, January 7, 1934
page 1. Article reports death yesterday of Wichita artist, John Noble, in New York from paraldehyde poisoning at age 59. Obituary.

Wichita Beacon
Sunday, April 26, 1936
page 1. Report that famous John Noble painting, “The Run,” depicting the opening of the Cherokee Strip, and said to have been painted in a studio at the Forum a score of years ago, was purchased yesterday from the painter’s widow by Frank Phillips, head of the Phillips Petroleum Company, for $15,000. Details. To be placed in the museum at Phillips’ Woolaroc ranch. John Noble died in 1934 at age 60. His brother Arthur, who resides at 1029 North Market, stated that “The Run” was painted was painted in a

Wichita Eagle
Monday, May 20, 1940
page 6. Contributions are being received from Wichita school children towards the purchase of John Noble’s painting, “The Big Herd” for the art museum.

Wichita Beacon
Wednesday, June 18, 1941  