Literary Rights

Literary rights were not granted to Wichita State University. When permission is granted to examine manuscripts, it is not an authorization to publish them. Manuscripts cannot be used for publication without regard for common law literary rights, copyright laws and the laws of libel. It is the responsibility of the researcher and his/her publisher to obtain permission to publish. Scholars and students who eventually plan to have their work published are urged to make inquiry regarding overall restrictions on publication before initial research.

Content Note

This collection of Girl Scout scrapbooks includes newspaper clippings, flyers, memos, correspondence and photographs describing activities of or participated in by the Wichita Area Girl Scouts from 1949 to 1987.

Administrative History

The first Girl Scouts troop in Wichita was organized in 1921, and, by 1925, the Wichita Girl Scout Council was formed, directing the activities of the many troops in the city. In the 1950s the Council expanded its region to include all troops in Sedgwick County, changing its name to the Wichita Area Girl Scout Council. In 2001 the organization was renamed and rechartered as the Girl Scouts of the Golden Plains. Six Girl Scout councils -- in Emporia, Garden City, Hays, Hutchinson, Salina and Wichita -- merged in October 2007 to become Girl Scouts of Kansas Heartland headquartered in Wichita.
